Job Announcement:
Culinary Manager/Chef

-Position available immediately-

Elawa Farm seeks culinary manager/chef to provide fresh, seasonal, farm-to-table cuisine, and signature foods along with offering new ideas and seasonal specialties for the Elawa Farm Garden Market which is open twice a week in season (May – Oct).

This is an exceptional opportunity to work in a unique environment. You will be part of a team of dedicated people all working for the success of Elawa Farm, a non-profit organization with a 2.2 acre vegetable and flower production garden in Lake Forest, IL. Elawa Farm follows sustainable, environmentally sensitive practices in growing the garden. The farm is a restoration of a former gentleman's farm developed by the Armour family 100 years ago.

We are looking for candidates who:

- Love to cook and take pride in their work; have an entrepreneurial spirit.
- Can be creative and at the same time follow our established recipes.
- Embrace the farm-to-table concept and using seasonal ingredients.
- Possess organizational skills and proficiency in Microsoft Office.
- Would provide financial stewardship, and management of the kitchen budget.
- Certified in Food Service Safety.
- Willing to work occasional weekends, and occasional evenings (fundraising events, Opening and Closing weekends of our seasonal Garden market).

The successful candidate will have the ability to communicate well, have strong interpersonal skills and work well in a team environment with a small staff, volunteers, and board members.

This is a full time position. Salary is contingent upon qualifications and experience.
